We're back again with our weekly instalment of The Intersection of Business, Faith, and Technology with Bill English. English runs a company called Mindsharp, and also manages a blog called "Bible and Business". English posted this on his blog's Twitter account:

That's the topic of this week's discussion for Christian business-owners and entrepreneurs: am I doing business God's way? English has written a blog post on a similar topic; "Undeniable Truths About Running a Business". Here are a few of the 13 Biblical truths about running a business God's way:

- God created business for His glory, to create wealth for His earthly kingdom and enable stewardship and generativity in the process.
- God calls some to own businesses and create wealth for His kingdom. This calling is a calling to ministry identical to and on par with a call to pastoral ministry.
- A violation of God's commandments in business will harm your business. Even if you turn a profit as a result.
- Success depends more on character than skill
- You cannot part-time your way into success.
- Your business is an entrustment from the Lord, to be used for His glory and the benefit of His kingdom.
